

DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH & ITALIAN

Advanced Italian

ITA 107

Instructors:

Anna Cellinese, Course Head
Elisa Dossena

This course analyzes Italian culture and cultural changes through popular products, such as comic books, music, film, food, and visual artifacts in connection with Italian history and society. Italian 107 is intended to provide students with tools for communicating effectively in Italian in an informal and formal context, to move students along the proficiency spectrum toward a more advanced language level, and to promote a global awareness and cross-cultural understanding of contemporary Italian life and culture. Classes are conducted entirely in Italian.

Prerequisites and Restrictions: ITA 102 or instructor's permission.
