Instructors:
Pietro Frassica

This course is designed to familiarize the student with major features of contemporary Italy and its culture. Its purpose is to develop the student's ability to communicate effectively in present-day Italy. The course emphasizes Italian social, political, and economic institutions, doing so through the analysis of cultural and social differences between Italians and Americans in such everyday concerns as money, work and leisure.

Prerequisites and Restrictions: ITA 107 or Permission of Instructor.

Other Information: The course will be conducted entirely in Italian and therefore requires an intermediate to advanced proficiency in the language (completion of ITA 107 or Permission of Instructor).
