FRE 103 is an intensive beginning and intermediate language course designed for students who have already studied French (typically no more than 2-3 years). Covering in one semester the material presented in FRE 101 and FRE 102, this course prepares students to take FRE 107 the following semester. FRE 103 is designed to develop the skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing in French in a cultural context using authentic materials. Classroom activities include comprehension and grammar exercises, conversation, skits, and working with a variety of audio-visual and online materials.

Prerequisites and Restrictions: Appropriate score on the Princeton French Language Placement Test. FRE 103 not allowed if FRE 101 or 102 taken.

Other Information: All classes are conducted in French.
