Advanced French
FRE 108

Instructors:
Murielle M. Perrier, Course Head

FRE 108 is an intermediate to advanced class that will take you on a journey through various periods of French/ Francophone history and culture and offer an opportunity to reflect on important questions at the center of contemporary debates. Examples include: the role of the State, urbanism, pandemics and ecology, healthcare, education, race and identity. We have selected a wide variety of materials (films, videos, newspaper articles, literary texts, etc.), so you will develop your ability to communicate and write on a wide range of topics in French and gain understanding of French and francophone cultures and societies.

Prerequisites and Restrictions: Placement through the University's Placement Test or completion of FRE 105.
Other Information: Offered both semesters. Classes in French. NOTE: FRE 108 also helps in preparation for applying to our study abroad program in Aix-en-Provence.
